Heather Adam

Born and raised in Minot, ND, I am a self taught artist with a focus in colored pencils, though I do dabble in all mediums. I have always had a strong passion for art, it's always been my favorite class throughout my schooling. I would take any extra art classes I could. Through the help of a college professor I was really able to grow by being able to experiment in many mediums and subjects.

My real journey however began after school. I had just become a stay-at-home mom to a little girl and had finally had some time to just draw, draw, and draw. I was finally finding my true calling and it turned out to be my colored pencils although, I do still enjoy painting every now and then.

Along with art I have also been passionate about animals. Particularly with how they interact with each other and their environments. Thinking about this idea while creating my art, my focus lately has been to portray them as having conversations with each other. I really delight in coming up with ideas on what they might be discussing.

I was so excited when my first piece sold at the 2019 Badlands Art Association Show in Dickinson, I exhibited in that same show in 2020 and was able to place on all five of the pieces I had entered and sold two as well. Since then every show I have entered I have won ribbons and awards and this has kept me very motivated to pursue a career in art.
